BEAUTY

PLAN #4

BE MINDFUL

Tired and anxious? When we're stressed, the hormone cortisol is released, which prompts the body to store fat, particularly around the tummy. This is where meditation comes in. 'Meditation alters gene activity and increases the level of telomeres and enzymes that control the length of your chromosomes, thus slowing and reversing ageing,' says spiritual guru Deepak Chopra. 'Other biological markers are affected: metabolic rate, cholesterol levels, hormones, sugar, metabolism and a reduction in inflammation in the body.' Feeling calmer increases wellbeing, which has a positive effect on your body. Here's how to meditate...

1. Set aside ten minutes a day.

2. Reflect. Think – who am I? What do I want? What is my purpose?

3. Check your posture and observe your body for any tension or discomfort, scanning your body from head to toe.

4. Focus on your breath. Breathe in for five seconds, hold for five seconds and breathe out for five seconds.

5. Prepare to finish. Become aware of your fingers and toes and the noises around you, then slowly open your eyes.

PRO TIP

Essential oil blends have clinically proven therapeutic properties. Ila Bath Salts for Inner Peace, £49, calms, while Aromatherapy Associates Support Breathe Essence, £19, helps you breathe more deeply. ▶

BESTIVAL

Isle of Wight's Bestival is for the serious party animals, with The Chemical Brothers and Underworld headlining. If you don't want to join in with the fancy-dress theme (it's 'The Summer of Love' for 2015), then opt for an Avatar-esque blue metallic eye.

Make-up how to

Intense glitter eyes will get you noticed. Use a glitter glue for a long-lasting look – Ben Nye Glitter Glue, £4.50, is great. Dab on the glitter and repeat for more intensity, then smudge black kohl into the roots of the lashes and inner rims to disguise any bare skin. Guerlain Khôl Me Kajal, £23.50, is the softest pencil. Lashings of mascara will open up the eyes more. Try a blue hue like Urban Decay 24/7 Glide-On Pencil in Sabbath, £15.50. For maximum impact, ensure skin has a natural-looking glow. Try Clarins Aquatic Treasures Summer Bronzing Compact, £30, for an infusion of youth against bare skin.

Top, Marco de Vincenzo; shorts, Felder Felder

The team shot and stayed at Constance Ephélia resort in Mahé, Seychelles. Rooms start at about £265 per night, including breakfast. To book, go to constancehotels.com/en/hotels-resorts/seychelles/ephelia
