WWD

A key trend for fall is designers' attempts to reinvent the suit for the Millennial generation – and even younger. They injected a variety of Nineties and youthful streetwear references such as longer, boxy blazers, cropped baggy pants and statement headwear accessories. For more on the designer suit trend, see pages 8-13.

AVOID THE FULL JOHNNY CASH BY LAYERING AND INCORPORATING VARIOUS TEXTURES.

Coat ($3,450) and trousers ($650) by Salvatore Ferragamo; sweater (price upon request) by Bottega Veneta; shoes ($1,125) by Hermès; socks ($29) by Pantherella.

ART OF DARKNESS

JACK HUSTON stepped out of the towering shadows of his Hollywood family (see also: Walter, John, Tony, Anjelica) by playing an assassin with a softer side on BOARDWALK EMPIRE and a mobster with a romantic streak in AMERICAN HUSTLE. This month, he brings the full Heston in a megabudget remake of BEN-HUR. But first he demonstrates that the best way to balance a dark fall wardrobe is with color, texture, and a little bit of confidence.
