BRIGHTER EYES

"There's a strong trend for smoky eyes this summer," says catwalk makeup artist Alice Dellal. "A dark eye shadow in summer may seem incongruous, but its new glossy texture catches the light, making eyes brighter. On this shoot, the shade is paired with clean, fresh skin and neutral, glowing lips."

SUBTLE KOHL Use a nude, super-shiny eye cream like Dior Eye Shadow in Golden Beige. Once it's wet a black kohl pencil and apply it heavily on the lash line. Calvin Klein Eye Definition Eye Pencil in Black, £9, is softer than others, making it easier to apply. Dab upwards towards the crease line with your finger, creating a graduation from intense at the lash line to transparent around the edges.

WILD GLOSS If you favour a more steamy effect, simply apply gloss around the eyes. It won't slip below the lower lash line, and it's a great way to deposit there, but coat lashes with waterproof mascara just in case. Choose gooey pigments that don't run or crease too easily, like Dior Show Brow Gel, £15, or MAC Paint Pot, £12. Finish with Lancôme Hypnôse Onyx mascara, £19.50.

POWDER CHEAT Fine shimmer eyeshadow looks like liquid but has staying power, say Gisele and Ty. Prestige Shimmering Eye Shadow Dust, £4.99. For more drama, Byrne suggests Shu Uemura Pressed Eye Shadow in Moonlit Bloom. For a more subtle, dab under-eye highlighter such as Calvin Klein Endless Crème Concealer in Bisque, £11, on the centre of eyelids. ►
