The advertisement features a MCM handbag with a bold, leopard-print pattern. The bag is made of a textured material with a large, prominent grain. It has a wide, tan-colored leather strap with the MCM monogram and a matching leather base. The top of the bag is lined with a dark, ribbed fabric. The MCM logo, a stylized butterfly with wings forming the letters 'MCM', is prominently displayed in gold on the strap and the base of the bag. The background is a solid black, making the bag stand out. At the top of the image, the MCM logo is shown again in a larger, gold-colored font, with the registered trademark symbol (®) below it. The overall aesthetic is classic and sophisticated, with a focus on the brand's signature patterns and monogram.

CITY STORIES

What I love the most about New York are the people. I call it the capital of Europe because you're exposed to so many cultures. You have access to every music genre there is, too, and that really inspires me to take my work in new directions.
